

Tenant Law Group Silver Consultation FAQs

Q: What is a Silver Consultation?

A: A Silver Consultation is a limited engagement with Tenant Law Group during which a tenant rights attorney will analyze your legal matter and provide you with a summary of your rights, detailed legal analysis, and a recommended action plan. A Silver Consultation consists of attorney review of your materials and a thirty-minute consultation via Zoom (or by phone upon request). While a Silver Consultation does not include any written work product, a written analysis of your matter, which includes a factual background, legal analysis (including links to applicable laws), action items, and resources, is available to clients who retain Tenant Law Group for Platinum Consultations.

Q: What can I expect at a Silver Consultation?

A: Tenant Law Group's attorney will have reviewed whatever materials you provide in advance of the consultation. At the start of the consultation, the attorney will propose an agenda to make the best use of the thirty minutes; however, how you wish to use the time is ultimately up to you. The attorney generally begins by asking you to prioritize your questions and/or advice needed and then sets an agenda to ensure sufficient time to ensure all questions are answered, documents reviewed, and advice given.

Q: Do I need to appear in person for a Silver Consultation?

A: No. Silver Consultations are available via Zoom or by phone upon request. Please be sure to provide electronically (i.e., via fax, email, or Microsoft OneDrive) any documents you would like our attorneys to review in advance of the consultation.

Q: Is the advice given during a Silver Consultation protected by the Attorney-Client Privilege?

A: Yes.

Q: Do I need to sign a Legal Services Agreement for a Silver Consultation?

A: No.

Q: What times are your attorneys available for a Silver Consultation?

A: Generally, weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. We will do our best to accommodate your schedule.

Q: When is the fee due?

A: At the time the appointment is made.

Q: Can I pay a portion of the fee for less time?

A: Unfortunately, no. The $195.00 fee is the minimum due for a consultation and includes up to thirty minutes, whether that time is fully utilized or not.

Q: Can the thirty minutes be non-consecutive?

A: Unfortunately, no. The consultation must take place during a consecutive thirty-minute period.

Q: Will an attorney follow up with me after my Silver Consultation?

A: No. However, a written case evaluation, which includes a factual background, legal analysis (including links to applicable laws), action items, and resources is available following a Platinum Consultation.
